Change Log

Introduction

This document provides general guidelines governing screening for 34 City, State, and Federal public benefits and programs. They are interpreted and implemented as logic in the rules engine that governs ACCESS NYC's screening tool and for the NYC Benefits Screening API and returns results of potentially eligible programs at the household level.

It's important to understand the following:

- The results from these guidelines do not represent an eligibility determination and do not guarantee eligibility in any program.
- To enroll in a benefit or program, a resident will need to submit an application through the administering governmental agency, which will determine eligibility.
- The results from these guidelines do not prohibit anyone from applying for any benefits or programs.
- These guidelines are subject to change at the discretion of the administering governmental agency.
   The Mayor's Office for Economic Opportunity makes reasonable efforts to produce updates on a quarterly basis, but such updates are not guaranteed.

Appendix

"DONE" - When eligibility rules state "DONE" at the end of eligibility step, it means that the rule doesn't check anything else or it doesn't look any further to check eligibility within the specific step.

Gross Income - total pay before taxes or other deductions.

Head of household - is the person who can represent everyone in your family and pays most of the family's expenses. If you pay more than half the cost for your home this year, you are the head of household.

Household (HH) - is composed of one or more people who live together. For SNAP, it applies for people who eat and prepare meals together.

May be eligible - it is not guaranteed but most probably so.

Primary residence - principal and permanent place of residence.

One can have only one primary residence but may own more than one property. A registered legal address (on New York State (NYS) driver's license or non-driver license New York City identification card, on Income Taxes or voters registration) is considered your primary residence.

Unable to Determine - it is unable to know or decide what will be the outcome.
